

Blue Chicago Moon

Songs: Ohia

Tab Taken From MyGuitarTabs.com

Tabbed by Dan McDowell

Intro

There s a little lick just before the Dm s that goes like so... it s easy to play with your hand in the Am position... just use your pinky to hammer on the third fret.

```
E-----0---3---1-|
B-----3-|
G---2-----2-|
D-----0-|
```

Dm Am Dm Am

Dm(drums come in here) and add a few extra beats for a drum fill...

then the song begins (2 beats for C and Dm and 4 for Am) VERY SLOW TEMPO

C Dm Am

C Dm Am

C Dm Am

Out of the room blood grown heavy from his past his wings stripped by thunder the storms keep coming back singing birds and sickness sing the same blue song when they fell out of the emptiness they must have brought alone

oooooooo
Space is lonlyness
space is lonlyness

It s gotten so good hot in it Even he does not admit it That glitter rain flash in his eyes makes him look like he might be alright if the blues are mine
you will come face to face with that darkness and desolation and the endless, endless, endless, endless, endless, endless, endless, depression (he sings it that many times)
But you are not helpless

you are not helpless

Try to beat it

Try to beat it

and live here space is loneliness and live through space is loneliness

you are not helpless

you are not helpless

I ll help you try, try to beat it

I ll help you try, try try to beat it

I ll help you try, try to beat it

I ll help you try, try to beat it

Ooooo Oooooo OOooooo