

Cotton Crown
Sonic Youth

Sister (1987)

Main riff:

```

Eb-----|
Eb-----|
D  -----9-10-12--12-12-12-10-9-10---14-14-14-----|
D  -----9-10-12--12-12-12-10-9-10---14-14-14-----|
G  ---0-----|
G  ---0-----|

```

Bridge: (just chords, no strumming shown)

```

Eb-----|
Eb-----| The fourth (last) time you play
D  --5---12---10---8-----| this riff instead of playing 8
D  --5---12---10---8-----| play 10 and bend it.
G  --5-----|
G  --5-----|

```

I think I may confuse you with the next part. Play riff A first, then riff B, then riff A, then barre at the 5th fret (like at the start of the start of the above riff) listen to CD and it should make sense.

Riff A	Riff B
Eb-----	-----
Eb-----	-----
D -----7--9--7--0--	---9---11--9--7-----
D -----7--9--7--0--	---9---11--9--7-----
G --0--7-----	-----
G --0--7-----	-----

Then strum the open D strings for a while before playing: just chords

```

Eb-----|
Eb-----|
D  ---10-----8-----|
D  ---10-----8-----|
G  -----|
G  -----|

```

Then play the part with riff A and B before starting the main riff again. At the end of the song the music just fades away.
