Find My Way Back Home Sons of Bill

One of my favorite songs off of Sirens, enjoy!

INTRO - features some hammering on and off as shown:

D A G
|-2-3-2-0--0-0-0-3-3-3-|
|-3-3-3-3-2-0-2-3-3-3-|
|-2-2-2-2-2-2-0-0-0-|x2 (not actual number of strums)
|-0-0-0-0-2-2-2-0-0-0-|
|------3-3-3-|

VERSE 1

(Note: In some places, there s a quick open strum on the low strings transitioning between Bm and G)

G D

There s an empty hall

 \mathtt{Bm}

and it echos back at you it s like an empty freight line rollin through the dead of night

D

no end in sight and nowhere to go

Bm

with no one to call your own,

G Z

there ain t no voice on the other end of the telephone

CHORUS

G A

oh and I wish I could see that smile

D

And hold it in a frame just for a while

Α

take me to the edge of the highway

I ll find my way back home

PLAY INTRO

VERSE 2

G D

Well there s a flood of tears

Bm

they re just falling down like rain

they spill into your empty bourbon glass pour it out fill it up again until you feel no pain wander to that bar and everybody s having fun they don t understand CHORUS
   if I could see that smile
And hold it in a frame just for a while
take me to the edge of the highway
I ll find my way back home
INTRO/SOLO
VERSE 3
There s a mirrored wall and it s starin back at you it s like an empty freight line movin through the dead of night
no end in sight and nowhere to go
        Bm
with no place to call your home, there ain t no voice on the other end of the telephone CHORUS
oh and I wish I could see that smile
And hold it in a frame just for a while
take me to the edge of the highway
I ll find my way back home
[Play INTRO four more times, end on G]
