

Living In This World
Sons of Midnight

Hey, guys, I've never found chords for this wonderful song, so I decided to do it on my own ;)

Cadd9 G Dsus4 Em7
I walk around town wondering how many hearts been broken

Cadd9 G Dsus4 Em7
All that's been shattered cause words that were left unspoken

Cadd9 G
And when it's safe to say nobody really knows

Dsus4 Em7
When the faith is lost most people let it go

Cadd9
But the clock keeps ticking on

G Dsus4 Em7
Knowing everything's for a reason

Cadd9 G Dsus4
Living in this world, sometimes a friend will cross the line

Em7 Cadd9
Sometimes you fly and touch the sky

G Dsus4 Em7
Riches ain't only diamonds and pearls

Cadd9 G Dsus4
Living in this world sometimes you lose the ones you love

Em7 Am
Sometimes you think you've had enough

C Cadd9 G Dsus4
So baby don't give up, living in this world...living in this world..no,

Em7
oh...

We all need a way to figure out the wheels in motion
Cause the train keeps rolling till it reaches our destination
And when your chips are down you wanna catch 'em out

But if you wait a while your hand will come round
So when your chance comes knocking knowing everything s for a reason.

Living in this world, sometimes a friend will cross the line
Sometimes you fly and touch the sky
Riches ain't only diamonds and pearls
Living in this world sometimes you lose the ones you love
Sometimes you think you ve had enough
But baby don t give up, living in this world...living in this world

Cadd9 G Dsus4 Em7
Whenever it rains it pours, whatever you want is yours,

Cadd9 G Dsus4 Em7
Whenever it rains it pours, whatever you want is yours

Cadd9 G Dsus4 Em7
I walk around town wondering how many hearts were broken

Cadd9 G Dsus4 Em7
The clock keeps ticking knowing everything s for a reason...

Living in this world, yeah, living in this world, Living in this world

Living in this world, sometimes a friend will cross the line
Sometimes you fly and touch the sky
Riches ain't only diamonds and pearls
Living in this world sometimes you lose the ones you love
Sometimes you think you ve had enough
But baby don t give up, living in this world...living in this world

Whenever it rains it pours, whatever you want is yours
Whenever it rains it pours, whatever you want is yours

Cadd9 G Dsus4 G
And the clock keeps ticking knowing everything's for a reason

Enjoy this wonderful song ;)
