

Just Like Anyone
Soul Asylum

>From Let Your Dim Light Shine
Transcribed by Bryan Pero (*)

Okay, this is a pretty easy song. There are two guitars playing at most times. Gtr.1 (Dave Pirner) plays first position chords, while Gtr.2 (Dan Murphy) plays barre chords. On the verses hit D chord once then palm mute it and strum. Then, when you play G upstroke it once. Just listen to the CD, you ll get it.

Verse I

D G
She walks into the outhouse, the cold night breathes into her face

D G
The flies are standing still now, the moon it spills through the place

Chorus I

C G D
And she starts wondering what it s like to be liked by everyone, and

C G D C G
And like everyone be just like anyone, who just wants to be so

D D
Just like anyone, just like anyone

Verse II

D G
She reaches through the darkness, her fingers touch the porcelain seat

D G
She spins and pulls her pants down, the cold air holds her like a thief

Chorus II

C G D
And she starts wondering what they mean, do they just mean to be mean

C G D
And thinking about the scene, do they just want to be seen

C G D D
Try not to seem so, Just like anyone, Just like anyone
