

Much Against Everyones Advice
Soulwax

LYRICS & MUSIC: Stephen & David Dewaele
TABBED BY: Luke Veasey (In Part)

I ve seen several versions of this song tabbed out on the net and they re all either Wrong or incomplete so I cannibalized the bits that were right and filled in the Missing gaps and so I give you the most accurate guide to playing this song (at least until someone corrects my mistakes).

This song uses drop D tuning (DADGBE). You ll need to listen to the song to get the timing. I ve included the lyrics as a general outline to show you what goes where.

I recommend a light/moderate distortion (gain 4) and a guitar with humbuckers set to bridge position (eliminating any unwanted extra bass) this even sounds good on a small practice amp also if you have a Casio keyboard one of the preset rock rhythms will give you a good approximation of the drum machine at the begining of the song.

So get out your guitars and pastel coloured seventies suits and have fun.

..You...

I care
but never enough for

you

Tiiiiiiiime-to set the record straight Tiiiiiiiime-to stop communicating please anticipate

And I m trying to comprehend the things I write and I m living the lie that I cannot satisfy Much against everyone s advice
I m still trying, I m trying, I m trying, I m trying

Faith cheated me of everything but I laughed until I stopped publicity very, very openly I sat alone with my thoughts
for
...
you

Tiiiiiiiime-to set the record straight Tiiiiiiiime-to stop communicating
please anticipate

And I m trying to comprehend the things I write
and I m living the lie that I cannot satisfy
much against everyone s advice
I m still trying, I m trying, I m trying, I m trying
