Give me some alcohol to stop me growing older

No survivors except the drivers

Here come a hurricane too finish anyone that's still alive

Are you alive? (We re Alive)

Because I can see the strangers getting stranger by the mile

Sometimes, sometimes, I can here these voices trying to tell me

G

That forever never comes

Or is the irony too heavy for your shoulders,

Still no survivors except the drivers

Are you alive? (We re Alive)

Because every single stranger is getting stranger every mile

Sometimes, yes Sometimes, I still hear the voices trying to
