Sing
Sounds Under Radio
Е
                    C# I want you to know
it s not your fault
what I ve become
          C#
is all I own
         Е
I live inside
              В
my own machine
but these clocks that keep me will always
sing
sing to me
                      C#
when you can breathe
when you can t sleep
                               Е
when you re feeling alone
and the words aren t right
                            Е
just sing, sing to me
                    Ab
I know that no one else
                           F#
can save me from myself
                                 Ab
but these words, like painted glass
                           F#
have frozen me between
sing
sing to me
                      C#
when you can breathe
