I m gonna walk straight down to the telephone wires cause that where your parents live
We re gonna talk and get this shit out of our heads you know words are sedatives
Speak loud, speak soft, speak anything you want.
Just don t use your tongue against me

I m feeling your blue skies
Through an overcast of clouds
And I know that you re the weather now

Oh, Mexico instead we re drinking margaritas in the snow
As the world it slowly falls apart
Oh, my calico you know I said we go too fast to take it slow
Is it hard with such a heavy heart?
