One hundred hairs make a man

I tried a handlebar design
My Fu Manchu was real fine
My Ronald Colman made em blink
My Pancho Villa made em think
But when I trimmed em real small
My Jewish friends would never call

Chorus

They call me sir, and that ain t bad
Sometimes they think that I m my Dad
And women flirt and you can bet
They like that tickle that they get
The only time I feel bad
Is when the guess the lunch I ve had

Chorus
