Sonny Special Patrol Track 10 - Handy Hints From the Undertaker I ve taken the lyrics from the booklet. Comments and corrections welcome. Βm D You should have told me sonny, Α I d fake it for the money, Em I m so easy that it s funny. Bm You say you got the last laugh, Α Well I m still laughing loudest, Em Bm D Α Em On the other side of my face - don t replace me. You re a walking fuckin Judas, I guess that makes me Jesus, I guess that makes you my weakness. And if you re begging for forgiveness, You better know your business, Em F# Bm D А Hit your knees boy and don t be late - because you know me and I don t wait. D Α Em Your eyes roll back into your skull, D Α Em You break so easy like a lifeless china doll, Bm I hope you fall. Α Bm D Em I think I might have kissed her, I know I got a blister, I swear I, I never touched your sister. But she told me about your brother, She should have left your number, Because I think I would have rung you. But you know me and I m so fake, Bm D But I know you, F# Α Em and that s okay because you take the cake. Your eyes roll back into your skull,

You break so easy like a lifeless china doll, You ve gone too far to ever save your soul, Don t make me break you china doll. I hope you fall.

Bm D A

Well you know me and I m so fake, Em

But it s okay cause you take the cake, Every time I m around, It s hard to love when you re so far down, You lost your head; you lost your face, You done your heart, now you take your place.

BmDAEmDon t make me break you china doll,Don t make me break you china doll.
