(Chorus)

G A7                    G A7                    G
 The things we do and have to do
 A7                    G                    A7                    G                    A7
 And the things I do for you and what you do for me too
                          G A7                    G
 the òyeah but I...Ó and any other excuse
 A7                    G                    A6
 And if you take it for given, then whatÕs the use?
 (repeat intro riff)

And at the same time as the chorus, another guitar plays this riff over and over, 6 1/2 times:

```

|-----|-----|
|-----|-----3-2-----|
|-----|---0-----0-----|
|---0-----|---2-----|
|-2-----0-2-0--|-----0-1--|
|-----3-3-----|-----|

(Verse 2:)

All his possessions around him in his house
 Lying beside him his companion and spouse
 And in the morning he dress and go to hell
 all activated by a little timer bell

(Chorus)

There is a solo but I am too lazy to type it all out here, so youÕll have to figure that out on your own.
