[Verse 1]

E
There s a pulse in the new-born sun
D A E
A beat in the heat of noon
E
There s a song as the day grows long
D A E
And a tempo in the tides of the moon
G A
It s all around us and it s everywhere
B A B
And it s deeper than royal blue
G A
And it feels so real you can feel the feeling

[Chorus 1]

E A
And that s the majesty of rock
F# B
The fantasy of roll
G# C#
The ticking of the clock
E A
The wailing of the soul
F# B
The prisoner in the dock
G# C#
The digger in the hole
G A E
We re in this together...and ever...

[Verse 2]

E
In the shade of a jungle glade
D A E
Or the rush of the crushing street
E
On the plain, on the foamy main

D A E
 You can never escape from the beat
G A
 It s in the mud and it s in your blood
B A B
 And it s conquest is complete
G A
 And all that you can do is just surrender

[Chorus 2]

E A
 To the majesty of rock
F# B
 The pageantry of roll
G# C#
 The crowing of the cock
E A
 The running of the foal
F# B
 The shepherd with his flock
G# C#
 The miner with his coal
G A E
 We re in this together...and ever...

[Verse 3]

E
 When we die, do we hunt the sky?
D A E
 Do we lurk in the murk of the seas?
E
 What then? Are we born again?
D A E
 Just to sit asking questions like these?
G A
 I know, for I told me so
B A B
 And I m sure each of you quite agrees
G A
 The more it stays the same, the less it changes

[Chorus 3]

E A
 And that s the majesty of rock
F# B
 The mystery of roll
G# C#

The darning of the sock

E                      A

The scoring of the goal

F#                      B

The farmer takes a wife

G#                      C#

The barber takes a pole

G                      A                      E

We re in this together...and ever...
