lyrics

I am the decline of this civilized world but I smoke buds out of the ashtray like scum of the earth but I Don't try to judge but than I ` I am high on coke`, And I Don't seem to fly high when I'm down low so I said

I Open up my eyes and breath easily and I see another damn day pass
I Open up my eyes and breath easily and I see another damn day pass

I'm no illusion of your preconceived self, but I like whiskey drinking fools In a bar

made of sand where joey rolls another spliff before we go hunting out for woman but its better to know that

I open up my eyes and breathe easily and I see another damn day pass
I open up my eyes and breathe easily and I see another damn day pass
See another damn day pass
See another damn day pass

(sax solo

open up my eyes and breathe easily and I see another damn day pass
I open up my eyes and breathe easily and I see another damn day pass
I open up my eyes and breathe easily, I see another damn day pass
I open up my eyes and breathe easily, I see another damn day pass
I see another damn day pass
