

The Washing Machine

SPORTS (Remember Sports)

[Intro]

D G x2

[Verse 1]

D G
I ve been doing my laundry every other weekend
D G
Put my sheets in the wash and hope your blood comes out
D G D G
Once I fold all the blankets in, I don t wanna let you in again
D G
And that new sweater you bought is gonna start to pill soon
D G
You ve been running in circles tryna make it stop
D G D G
Maybe you ll save it if you never ever wear it

[Chorus]

Em G
I m gonna scream from the washing machine
Em G
Cause I shrunk all my dresses again
Em G
A seventh grade dream where my clothes were real clean
Em G
But my mom turned everything pink

[Interlude]

D G x2

[Verse 2]

D G
Sometimes at night it looks like you ve stopped breathing
D G
Or maybe it s just that I am crushing you
D G D G
We re driving each other crazy but I know that you ve been changing
D G
So I m gonna sleep until my bed is unmade
D G
Cause everything feels a little bit less safe
D G D G
But I think that it s okay to feel all of something

[Chorus 2]

Em G
And you aren t dead, it s just all in your head

Em G
Because too many things have gone wrong
Em G
I ll come around cause it s a terrible sound
Em G
When we re both letting each other down

[Bridge]
(palm-mute this whole section)

D D/C# G
You re the reason why
G D
I can never hide
D/C# G
You left my keys inside
D D/C# G
Will you stay with me?
D
I m having trouble breathing
D/C# G
This is not my life

[Outro]
