

Labelled With Love
Squeeze

Labelled With Love , Squeeze

D
She unscrews the top off her new whisky bottle
D A
She hobbles about in her candlelit hovel
A
Like some kind of witch, with blue fingers in mittens
A D
She smells like a cat, and the neighbours she sickens
D
Her black and white TV has long seen a picture
D7 Em
The cross on the wall is a permanent fixture
A
The postman delivers, the final reminders
A G F#m Em
She sells off her silver, and poodles in china

D E7
Drinks to remember I, me and myself
A D
Winds up the clock, and knocks dust from the shelf
E7
Home is a love that I miss very much
A G F#m Em D
So the past has been bottled, and labeled with love

D
During the wartime an American pilot
D A
Made every air-raid a time of excitement
A
She moved to his prairie and married the texan
A D
She d learn from a distance how love was a lesson
D
He became drinker and she became mother
D7 Em

She knew that one day she d be one or the other

A

He ate himself old and drank himself dizzy

A

G

F#m Em

Proud of her features, she kept herself pretty

D

E7

Drinks to remember I, me and myself

A

D

Winds up the clock, and knocks dust from the shelf

E7

Home is a love that I miss very much

A

G F#m Em D

So the past has been bottled, and labelled with love

D

He like a cowboy died drunk in a slumber

D

A

Out on the porch in the middle of summer

A

She crossed the ocean back home to her family

A

D

But they had retired to roads that are sandy

D

She moved home alone without friends or relations

D7

Em

Lived in a world full of age reservations

A

Her moth eaten armchair, she d say that she s sod all

A

G

F#m

Em

Friends who have left her, to drink from the bottle

D

E7

Drinks to remember I, me and myself

A

D

Winds up the clock, and knocks dust from the shelf

E7

Home is a love that I miss very much

A

G F#m Em D

So the past has been bottled, and labelled with love

A

G F#m Em D

So the past has been bottled, and labelled with love

A

G

F#m

Em D

The past --- has been bottled, -- and la--be --lled with --- love