

Womans World
Squeeze

Intro :

E A C#m A

E A E A
The crown of the kingdom is given to the woman
E A E A
The kingdom of the kitchen where she says she shouldn't,
D Bm A B
There on the stainless steel her cigarettes and matches
C#m F#m E
Whistles to the radio to every hook she catches,
F#m
But the frowns
C#
Eider downs,
Am
Tie her down
A E (A C#m A)
But she likes to wear the crown of the kingdom.

E A E A
She like the recipes a touch of oriental
E A E A
Steaming up the windows burning egg on metal,
D Bm A B
Sees in a catalogue a shiny new appliance
C#m F#m E
Another role swallowed by the wonders of science,
F#m
Lobster hands
B
Omelette pans,
Am
Understand
A E (A C#m A)
How the crown can stick like jam in her kingdom.

G# C#m
He's been so busy and she's been neglected,
G# C#m
The problem is computed and always it's rejected,
G# A F#m
Out of her heart I catch a spark,
B
And being smart
G# A F#m B

The crown is left out in the dark now there s no kingdom.

F# B F# B

Fed up with the glory she abdicates her title

F# B F# B

Sitting at a bar stool she gives her day s recital,

E C#m

The family watch in horror

B (C#)

As she staggers up the hallway

D#m

Makes herself a sandwich

G#m F#

As they re looking through the doorway,

G#m

She goes to bed

D#

Leg by leg,

Bm

Nothing s said

B F#

There s no crown upon her head there s no kingdom.

F# (E)F# B

Press the button on the toaster

D

It s a woman s world,

F# (E)F# D

Tuck the sheets in on the bed

B

It s a woman s world,

F# (E)F# D

Take your apron from your holster

B

It s a woman s world,

F# (E)F# B

Shoot the crown off of your head

D

It s a woman s world.