Inside You by Stabbing Westward

Tabbed by Dave Bloom

One of my favorites on the WBB+P album along with Sleep and Crushing Me. This is by far the easiest song to play on the record. But is so unbelievably well done its genius. It consists of only four chords towards the end of the song. The rest is just keyboard and synthesizer effects.

Standard Tuning

E
A
D
G
B

The chords are

	B	C#	D	E
	---	---	---	---
	-4-	-6-	-7-	-9-
	-4-	-6-	-7-	-9-
	-4-	-6-	-7-	-9-
	-2-	-4-	-5-	-7-
	---	---	---	---

I feel your lips

I taste your skin

I need to know

I need to feel you from within

As your blood burns through my skin

I feel complete

I breathe you in

It s where you end and I begin

If only I could stay here... forever

So much to tell you

So much to give you

So much to confide

Now that i m inside you

We are flesh (we are flesh)

We are one (we are one)

So why do I feel so much guilt

For what i ve done

As your blood burns through my skin

I feel release

I breathe you in (breathe you in)

It s where you end and I begin (I begin)

If only I could stay here... forever

So much to tell you

So much to give you

So much to confide
