

Something To Remind You Staind

Intro: Bm A5 G F#

Bm A5
So this is it, I say goodbye
G F#
To this chapter of my ever changing life
Bm A5
And there s mistakes, the path is long
G F#
And I m sure I ll answer for them when I m gone
G D
So when the day comes and the sun won t touch my face
Em F#
Tell the ones who cared enough that I finally left this place

Bm A5
That s been so cold look at my face
G A5
All the stories it will tell I can t erase
Bm
The road is long
A5
Just one more song
G A5
A little something to remind you when I m gone
Bm A5 G F#
When I m gone

Bm A5
The road to hell along the way
G F#
Is paved with good intentions so they say
Bm A5
And some believe that no good deed
G F#
Goes unpunished in the end or so it seems
G D
So when the day comes and the sun won t touch my face
Em F#
Tell the ones who cared enough that I finally left this place
