(C#m) B E
I m not very good at just paying attention
C#m B E
I m not very good at remembering things that you say
C#m B E
I m not very good at persuing redemption
C#m B E G# G#m C#m
I m not very good at concealing the hand that I play

(C#m) A E G# G#m C#m
I ts the way I am, you ll never change
The way I am, or rearrange
The way I am, just let me be
The way I am, I ts the way I am
(C#m) B E

I m not really sure of the coming attractions
I m not really sure of the illusions we read on the wall
I m not really sure of the preaching we practice
I m not really sure if we notice it before we fall

I ts the way I am, you ll never change
The way I am, or rearrange
The way I am, just let me be
The way I am, I ts the way I am
(C#m) E A

F#m E
I m not very good at just paying attention
A
I m not very good at remembering things
I m not very good at pursuing redemption
I m not very good at concealing the hand that I play when I m trying so hard just to beat you
I m not really good at controlling my fate
I m not really good at controlling my anger
I m not really good at subduing my hate
F#m
I m not really good
E
I m not really good

I m not really good

I ts the way I am, you ll never change

The way I am, or rearrange

The way I am, just let me be

The way I am, I ts the way I am
