Sun is rising high, burning into the day,
C#m A E
I will say goodbye, I ll be going away,
E E/D A/C# A
Brush away my doubts, what tomorrow will hold,
C#m A E
Feeling fine for now, going down the road...

C#m A E
To a city to sing, about the trees and the wind,
C#m A E
Bout the hills in spring, and the rivers that bend,
E E/D A/C# A
The rocky deep pass, and the poppies and posies,
C#m A E
Running through the grass, up and down the road.

C#m A E
Do do do dodo do do do do do do
C#m A E
Do do do dodo do do do do do do

C#m A E
In the dark they sit and they holler for more,
C#m A E
White smoke in a wisp, from here to the door,

E E/D A/C# A
 Their admission they paid, for the stories they re to ld,
C#m A E
 Of a clear new day, hold me down on the road.

C#m A E
 So heavy rain at my back, lazy meadows ahead,
C#m A E
 In my book I keep track, of the promises said.
E E/D A/C# A
 For my songs in a town, that tomorrow will ho ld
C#m A E
 Feelin fine for now, facin down the road.

C#m A E
