

Moonlight Feels Right
Starbuck

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Starbuck_\(band\))

A great hit from the 70 s. Andrew Rogers would be proud!
The Em7 chord sounds better if you play it barred at the 7th fret.

F#m7	D6	Dmaj7
The wind blew some luck in my direction I caught it in my hands today
F#m7	D6	Dmaj7
I finally made a tricky French connection You winked and gave me your ok
B/B	Dmaj7
I ll take you on a trip beside the ocean And drop the top at Chesapeake Bay
B/B	G/G
Ain t nothing like the sky to dose a potion The moon ll send you on your A7sus
way (fake laugh)
Dmaj7	A7sus	Dmaj7
Moonlight feels right, moonlight feels right
F#m7	D6
We ll lay back and observe the constellations, and watch the moon smiling
Dmaj7
bright
F#m7	D6
I ll play the radio on southern stations 'cause southern belles are hell at Dmaj7
night
B/B	Dmaj7
You say you came to Baltimore from Ole Miss; a class of seven four gold ring
B/B	G/G	A7sus
The eastern moon looks ready for a wet kiss to make the tide rise again, ha, ha
Dmaj7	A7sus	Dmaj7
Moonlight feels right, moonlight feels right
F#m7	D6	Dmaj7
We ll see the sun come up on Sunday mornin And watch it fade the moon away
F#m7	D6
I guess you know I m givin you a warnin Cause me and moon are itchin to Dmaj7

play

B/B

Dmaj7

I ll take you on a trip beside the ocean and drop the top at Chesapeake Bay

B/B

Ain t nothing like the sky to dose a potion

G/G

A7sus

The moon ll send you on your way

Dmaj7

A7sus

Dmaj7

A7sus

Moonlight feels right, moonlight feels right

Dmaj7

A7sus

Dmaj7

A7sus

Moonlight feels right, moonlight feels right