

as she didnt know it was

B Em C

a beginning of the end...the end

Chorus:

D/F# G C G D/F#
Then love came in, and time flew by, we were so free
G C G D/F#
We had it all, we gave so much, still we couldnt see
G (Em D/F# C)
convinced ourseleves forever is more than a dream
C G - C D/F# (interlude)
how could we know, we were only twenty-three

Interlude:

Em, D/F#, C, C-B-A-G

Em, D/F#, G-B-Em

(pause)

Verse 3:

G
As she s got a dress hanging on her door frame

C
I got a ring sitting on my dresser

B
I don t know what went wrong

I don t know how I lost her

G
She said she needs to find herself
C wants me to go and bring some help but (B Em C)
all i want is her

(B Em C)
but all i can do is just, remember

Chorus:

D/F# G C G D/F#
Then love came in, and time flew by, we were so free
G C G D/F#
We had it all, we gave so much, still we couldnt see
G (Em D/F# C)
convinced ourseleves forever is more than a dream
C G - C
how could we have known
C G - C
how could we know

D/F#

we were only seventeen

End: G, C

G, C, G, C

Only seventeen

---note---

how to play...well, my ring and pinky finger stays on the 3rd fret of the first two high strings except when playing D/F#. I hope you get it.

This is how I think it sounds like though I m not really quite sure.
I listened to the lyrics myself as well, since I can t find it online.
