

Midnight Coward
Stars

G C
Sweetness, sweetness never suits me,
D/F# Em
when I get up to take you home
G C
Maybe it s love, love at first slightly drunk
D/F# Em
Now I m walking with the sun in my mouth

G C
Worry, worry is a well, going to let it
D/F# Em
fall tonight, from where we stand

C D G C
What can t be decided
C D G C
In the morning it will bring itself to you
C D G C
I can see what s coming,
C D
but I m not saying it

G C
Sickness, weakness at the thought, of
D/F#
how you re going to play
Em
How long should I stay?
G C
Promises, promises never cease to assist it,
D/F#
now I m back on my back
Em
Please bite your words
G C
Hurry, hurry to believe, I can always
D/F# Em
trust, as much as you deceive

C D G C
What can t be decided
C D G C
In the morning it will bring itself to you
C D G C
I can see what s coming,
C D

but I m not saying it

G C
What s your middle name? How do you play the game?

D/F# Em
I ll be the first to leave

G C
When did I grow up? I don t want to say too much

D/F# Em
I ll be the first to leave

C D G C
What can t be decided
C D G C
In the morning it will bring itself to you

C D G C
What can t be decided
C D G C
Can fool you into thinking maybe you can choose

C D G C
I can see what s coming

C D G C
I can see what s coming

C D G C
I can see what s coming

D G
But I m not saying it
