

The Black House The Blue Sky
Stars

C F C F

C

let s paint the city Eiffel tower green

F

and go on a holiday, go on vacation

C

this is the closest that you ve ever been,

F

but you re still so far away from your destination

C

you drive an hour but it feels like days,

F

it s just buildings and buildings and buildings

C

and when you finally leave suburban haze

F

you re quietly shocked at the thought that we kill things

G

G

the black house the blue sky

G

F

the black house the blue sky

F

the blue sky

we left a photograph in letterhead

F

found in the morning in newspaper sunlight

C

we left it lying on the kitchen chair

F

and when you found it we hope that it reads right

C

it s never easy when we write good-bye

F

but good-bye is the one word we know

C

you ll never make it but we have to try

F

give in, give up, and let go

F

give up and let go

the black house, the blue sky (you and I) G F
in the black house, the blue sky (the blue sky)

C G
the black house, the blue sky
F
this black house, the blue sky
G
the black house, the blue sky
F
this black house, the blue sky
F
the blue sky (blue sky)

C F

F C
we left the ending locked inside that room
F
and you hold the key
C
you push open the door
F
and then you see

C F

F C
you see the black house and the blue sky
C F
and you and I
C
you see the black house and the blue sky
C F
and you and I F C
you see the black house and the blue sky
