

Time Can Never Kill The True Heart Stars

Alright. So this is my favorite song from the Canadian Indie Geniuses that are Stars, was highly disappointed when I didn't see a tab or any chords for this song. So I spent a while trying to figure out. I don't know any scales or anything so I just fiddled around. Sorry if it doesn't sound right to you. It for more a slowed down or acoustic version. Works best (for me at least) with a Capo on 2.

VERSE: (Don't know the names of the chords, so I'll just go with numbers)

e|-----|
B|-----|
G|----4----4-----|
D|----2----4-----|
A|----2-----|
E|-----|
      1      2

Example:

1              2
One step closer to the sea wall
1              2
Looking down, you can see all
1              2
Hold my hand so you don't fall
1              2
Catch your breath as the gulls call

CHORUS: (Don't know the names of the chords, so I'll just go with numbers)

e|-----|
B|-----|
G|----1----1-----|
D|----2----2-----|
A|----4-----|
E|-----|
      3      4

Example:

3              4
One heart out of two
3              4
One life: me and you

And then there s this one part that s a little different.

e|-----|
B|-----|
G|----6----|
D|----4----|
A|-----|
E|-----|

5

Example:

1           5           2
One half filled with the dreams of a saint
1           2
The other filled with nothing but hate
1           5           2
I hope I die in the arms of a child
1           2
In a meadow where the thistles grow wild

Again, sorry if this is crappy. Hopefully this will suffice for now and encourage to put up a better version.
