

Very Thing
Stars

It s actually originally tabbed by an Unregistered person, but I found that his chords seemed to sound a bit funny and I made some changes to it that seemed to sound fine. There s a part missing near the ending, but generally it works fine to my ears

I play it with a capo on 1st.

D Bm
The bar closes early on the Sabbath day
G A
So me and my kid we hit the park to play
D Bm
Then it d start to rain so we d walk home again
G
He asked why he was born
A
I don t know what to say

D Bm
I don t feel guilty and I don t feel sad
G A
This mother fucking life is the best he s had
D Bm
I said I ve been there sonny and it ain t that bad
G A
I took my hits from the shits back when I was a lad

Chorus:

G Bm
So long ago and even though I tried
D A G
I couldn t make him see the life he had cast in front of me
Bm D A
And even though I cried I couldn t make him be the very thing I needed

(Same chord progression of D, Bm, G, A)

His mother d make a scene when I come home late
She look like she s dying but she s twenty eight
I never loved that whore I never will no more
Except for a month back in 84
The jam was playing and my heart stood still gazing at a shadow on the window sill

Chorus: (Chord progression of G, Bm, D, A)

So long ago and even though I tried I couldn t make her see I wasn t quite the man she thought I d be

And even though I cried I couldn't make her be the very thing I needed

And even though I tried I couldn't make her see I wasn't quite the man she thought I'd be

And even though I cried I couldn't make her be the very thing I needed

(This is the part I've not figured out)

Could she be the very thing I needed?

Could she be the very thing

the very thing
