Hm          D
And if I had my way
                  G
I would run to the rescue

It never works that way

                  Hm          D
Oh, all the fools rush in
                  G
It s a battle to surround you
                  Hm          D

                  G
But I m not giving up

You had me under spell right from the start
                  G                          Asus2
I don t have a telepathic heart
Hm          D
Blind, I fall into the line
                  G
That s waiting just to get you
                  Hm          D
But I don t ever know just what we are

I don t have a telepathic heart
