She passes by, with or without her beautiful smile

I wonder if I, even have the courage to ask her out

But I live by the dream, to find the reason, to tell her

Put your favorite dress on girl, cause I m gonna rock your world
Bm G D A
There s a place where you never have been before
Bm G D A
Looking at the moon outside, It s getting pretty bright tonight
G A
Feel the beat of my heart, cause I m falling

Bm G D A

It s another day, and now I know what I have to say

I call her name, and she lights up and comes my way

Put your favorite dress on girl, cause I m gonna rock your world

There s a place where you never have been before

Feel the beat of my heart, cause I m falling down, yeah, yeah

Spare a minute of your time, gonna make you mine

There is nothing in my way when I sweep your heart away, today
