

Sybil

State Radio

This song was apparently written by chad for his girl, its slowly grown on me and now is one of my favorites off their amazing album Us Against The Crown , i suggest you go out and buy it if you havent already. Im pretty sure this is 100%, some of the chord changes are slightly off because the whole song is picked, but if i have spooned up the entire tab feel free to email me corrections, criticism, praise or proposals to:
