(G) C
There s a grandfather clock in the corner
G
With a smile on it s face
C
Chairs and tables, expensive labels
G C
Velvet curtains and lace
Eb
Every day when I go in there
Bb G C
I will buy a thing or two
Eb
But money can t buy everything
Bb D
Cos what I really want is you

G C
Oh, Antique Angelique, you mean more to me
G Em C D
Than everything I have
G C
Oh, Antique Angelique, you mean more to me
G Em C D
Than everything I have

Now my house is an empty garden
And the shop is so bare
All these things that I bought mean nothing
Cos Angelique is still there
It s too late now to forget her
