Simple, country flavoured song from The Quo. From the album In The Army Now.

 \mathbf{F} C \mathbf{F} F7 I got an invitation from a girl I used to know back home Dm G С вb It was an invitation asking me to telephone F7 F She said, it s getting lonely here вb Bbm And I ve been gone for close a year I took the first flight out to meet the girl I used to know back home Dm, CF Dm C F C \mathbf{F} F7 She met me off the flight, a million dollars in her long red gown вb C Dm G With a man in a black hat just to drive us back to town F F7 Now the faces all look the same вb Bbm And all the places have the same old names вb F C

But in a year you ve changed just like the girl I used to know back home F C F Yes, in a year you ve changed just like the girl I used to know back home

вb C F Maybe it s true that I go on and on and on Bb С Dm Maybe it s true that I m the lonely one alone вb What can I say to you, what can I say to you? F F C Yes, in a year you ve changed just like the girl I used to know back home Dm, CF Dm, CF Dm, CF Dm, C Bb C

It took another year before I started getting itchy toes And then I had to leave, but that s the way the story goes Well I reckon if she d made me stay I d never live to see another day I took the first flight out and left the girl I used to know back home Maybe it s true that I go on and on and on Maybe it s true that I m the lonely one alone What can I say to you, what can I say to you? I took the first flight out and left the girl I used to know back home Dm С F F Back home, I left the girl back home C F Dm I left the girl back home Dm C F I left the girl back home F Dm С I left the girl back home C Dm F I left the girl back home
