F# C# F# F#7
I got an invitation from a girl I used to know back home
B Ebm G# C#
It was an invitation asking me to telephone
F# F#7
She said, it s getting lonely here
B Bm
And I ve been gone for close a year
F# C# F#
I took the first flight out to meet the girl I used to know back home

Ebm, C# F#
Ebm

C# F# C# F# F#7
She met me off the flight, a million dollars in her long red gown
B Ebm G# C#
With a man in a black hat just to drive us back to town
F# F#7
Now the faces all look the same
B Bm
And all the places have the same old names
F# C# B
But in a year you ve changed just like the girl I used to know back home
F# C# F#
Yes, in a year you ve changed just like the girl I used to know back home

B C# F#
Maybe it s true that I go on and on and on
B C# Ebm
Maybe it s true that I m the lonely one alone
B C#
What can I say to you, what can I say to you?
F# C# F#
Yes, in a year you ve changed just like the girl I used to know back home

Ebm, C# F#
Ebm, C# F#
Ebm, C# F#
Ebm, C# B C#

It took another year before I started getting itchy toes
And then I had to leave, but that s the way the story goes
Well I reckon if she d made me stay
I d never live to see another day
I took the first flight out and left the girl I used to know back home

Maybe it s true that I go on and on and on
Maybe it s true that I m the lonely one alone
What can I say to you, what can I say to you?
I took the first flight out and left the girl I used to know back home

F# Ebm C# F#
Back home, I left the girl back home

Ebm C# F#
I left the girl back home

Ebm C# F#
I left the girl back home

Ebm C# F#
I left the girl back home

Ebm C# F#
I left the girl back home
