cashing in my chips with a reality cheque

I sold your clothes and I cancelled your cards
I changed the lock on the house and the car
And didn t I tell you, the diamonds are fake
I must admit, that s the icing on the cake

It wasn t me that got you into this mess
I wanted to try and make it all a success
But now you re hanging on around my neck
Shaking you off with a reality cheque
Shaking you off with a reality cheque
With a fat reality cheque
With a fat reality cheque
With a fat reality cheque
