

Harvest Of The Moon
Steeleye Span

Harvest of the moon

D G D
All the husbands and thier wives we were dancing for our lives all to the
A
tune of Elsie Marley
D G
instead of gathering up our differences and throwing them in the air
D A D
And giving them to the wind that shakes the barley

G D
And the children they were watching every girl and every boy as we danced to A
the tune of Elsie Marley
D G D
But they d heard another tune from the harvest of the moon that rides upon A D
the wind that shakes the barley

G D
Then Bridget she declared that she was not prepared to watch us dance to the
A
tune of Elsie Marley
D G
She said I ll sing you all a song and you ll want to sing along
D A D
If you listen to the wind that shakes the barley

chorus

G D
And the song that she sang could be heard from miles around
Bm A
The air was full of harmony you should ve heard the sound
D G
As we gathered up our differences and threw them in the air
D A D
And gave them to the wind that shakes the barley

A D G D A

oooohhhh ooohh ooohhh ooohhh

D G D
All the husbands and thier wives we were dancing for our lives all to the
A
tune of Elsie Marley
D G
Until we gathered up our differences and threw them in the air
D A D
And gave them to the wind that shakes the barley

GD
 Then all of us declared that we were not prepared to dance our lives away
A
 with Elsie Marley
DG
 For we heard another tune from the harvest of the moon
DAD
 That rides upon the wind that shakes the barley
GD
 And the song that we sang could be heard for miles around
BmA
 The air was full of harmony you should ve heard the sound
DG
 As we gathered up our differences and threw them in the air
DA
 And gave them to the wind that shakes the barley
D A D G D A
 oooooh ohhh oooooh