

Harvest Of The Moon
Steeleye Span

Harvest of the moon

D G D
All the husbands and thier wives we were dancing for our lives all to the
A
tune of Elsie Marley
D G
instead of gathering up our differences and throwing them in the air
D A D
And giving them to the wind that shakes the barley

G D
And the children they were watching every girl and every boy as we danced to A
the tune of Elsie Marley
D G D
But they d heard another tune from the harvest of the moon that rides upon A D
the wind that shakes the barley

G D
Then Bridget she declared that she was not prepared to watch us dance to the
A
tune of Elsie Marley
D G
She said I ll sing you all a song and you ll want to sing along
D A D
If you listen to the wind that shakes the barley

chorus

G D
And the song that she sang could be heard from miles around
Bm A
The air was full of harmony you should ve heard the sound
D G
As we gathered up our differences and threw them in the air
D A D
And gave them to the wind that shakes the barley

A D G D A

ooohhhh ooohh ooohhh ooohhh

D G D
A
tune of Elsie Marley
D G
Until we gathered up our differences and threw them in the air
D A D
And gave them to the wind that shakes the barley

Then all of us declared that we were not prepared to dance our lives away with Elsie Marley
For we heard another tune from the harvest of the moon
That rides upon the wind that shakes the barley
And the song that we sang could be heard for miles around
The air was full of harmony you should ve heard the sound
As we gathered up our differences and threw them in the air
And gave them to the wind that shakes the barley
oooooh ohhh ooooo
