Verses:

A A A A
Come me own one, come me fair one, come now unto me

Dm A A D G
Could you fancy a poor sailor lad, Who has just come from sea?

A A A A
You are ragged love, you are dirty love, and your clothes smell much of tar

Dm A A D G
So begone you saucy sailor lad, so begone you Jack Tar

A A A A
If I am ragged love, and I m dirty love, and me clothes smell much of tar

Dm A A D G
I have silver in me pocket love, and gold in great store

A A A A
And then when she heard him say so on her bended knee she fell

Dm A A D G
I will marry my dear Henry for I love a sailor lad so well

A A A A

Do you think that I am foolish love, Do you think that I am mad?

Dm A A A D G

For to wed with a poor country girl, Where no fortune s to be had

A A A A

I will cross the briny ocean, I will whistle and sing

Dm A A D G

And since you have refused me offer love, some other girl shall wear the ring

A A A A

I am frolicsome, and I am easy, good tempered and free

Dm A A D D/C D D

/C
And I don t give a single pin me boys, What the world thinks of me
