Any Major Dude
Steely Dan

Tabbed and chorded by Howard Wright

    As heard on the Pretzel Logic Album   (and a damn fine album it is)

INTRO:

Verse:

   A                          Asus2/C#              D
    I never  seen  you   lookin  so bad  my    funky one

  A                       Asus2/C#              G          A/G  G  A/G  G
 You tell me that your super-fine  mind has   come undone

  Bm7                 F#m7                     G#m7
Any major dude with half a heart  surely would  tell you my friend

  Bm7                          F#m7                   G#m7
Any amount of world that      breaks apart  falls  to - gether again

        Bm7         D/E        Amaj7           Gmaj7
When the demon  is    at your       door    in the    morning he won t be

  F#m7     B7    A7       G7               F#m7
there    no     more   any   major dude would tell you

 D        G           A5 G5 A5 G5 A5 G5 A5 G5 A5
  Any    major dude would   tell

(These last chords go over the riff-the last change from G5 to A5 should be slid)

The other verses and choruses go as above, and the solo is played over the same chords as the verse

There is a middle bit which comes after the third (I think!) chorus

It goes:

 F#m7           G#m7                    Amaj7            C#m7
I can tell you  all I know   the    where  to go    the   what to do

 F#m7           G#m7              Bm7                  D/E
You can try to  run but you can t  hide from what s    inside  of you

(The solo comes next)

That s all!
