Intro: C

C
You got photographs hanging on your wall
Em
of your friends and your cat, they don't seem nice at all F C
and I just don't know why I'm so into you

And I'd like to get it but I just don't see Em
and I wonder what or if you think of me
F C G
and how'd you deserve the thousand thoughts I waste on you

Refrain:

Am F
So here is my heart, and here is my bones
C G
back in the times of sticks and stones
Am F
so call it a day, and call it a lie
C G
call it a way to say goodbye

Bridge: C Em F C G

And the days are long and I'm hanging round in my bed or kitchen and I keep writing songs about you and you and your stupid ways to act

So you make me angry and you make me sad so I'll just forget your number and forget what we had and I'll never ever think of you again

So here is my heart, and here is my bones
back in the times of sticks and stones
so call it a day, and call it a lie
call it a way to say goodbye

F Am F
Give me something to hold on to C F
Give me something i can do
Am
Give me something to rely on C G
when I m lost in a foolish girl like you

Refrain x2

Am
F
 So here is my heart, and here is my bones
G
 back in the times of sticks and stones
Am
F
 so call it a day, and call it a lie
