Subject: CRD/LYR: Stephen Bruton: Too Many Memories

Here is a nice ballad by Stephen Bruton (joined by Bonnie Raitt on harmony vocals). Corrections (both lyrics & chords) are welcome.

Too Many Memories

Intro:

G | C G | | Am7 |

(The intro figure is played off a G chord shape with an occasional E on the 4th string)

[tab]G D G C D
I remember this town with a girl by my side[/tab]
[tab] Em C G
And a love seldom found in this day and time[/tab]

(chords repeated for all verses)

And it gets melancholy ev ry now and again

When you let your mind go and it drifts way back when

Life plays it s tricks some cruel but fair

And even a fool can t pretend they don t care

(Chorus:)

[tab] D Em C G
When there s too many memories for one heart to hold[/tab]
[tab] D Em C G
Once a future so bright now seems so distant and cold[/tab]
[tab] D G D G
When the shadows grow long and your eyes look so old[/tab]
[tab] C G
When there s too many memories for one heart to hold[/tab]

There are those moments, and they just never fade

Like the look in her eyes and the way that life played (?)

God moved in that moment and the angels all cried

And they gave you a memory that you ll have till you die

Now the lesson you learn and you don t dare forget

What makes you grow old is replacing hope with regret

Chorus (with minor variations; 2 lines starting with "And" in stead of "When":)

And there s too many memories....

And the shadows.....

And now a couple of requests:

"Mary watches everything" by Luka Bloom (I need the chords)

"Where have you been" by OHO (I need the lyrics, I got the chords and the cool picking pattern in the intro)
