

Cold Cold Christmas
Stephen Colbert

[VERSE 1]

E A
I want a cold, cold Christmas
E
I hope it s twenty below
Let a winter storm bury all that s warm
F# B
In a bone-chilling blanket of snow
E A
Thought you would love me forever
Ab
Turns out you wanted to part
A Am E Db
Now I want a cold, cold Christmas
F# B E
To go with your cold cold heart

[VERSE 2]

E A
Oh I want a cold, cold Christmas
E
One that s bitter and barren and bleak
Where the weather s foul and the west winds howl
F# B
And the sun doesn t shine for a week
E A
You hung up my heart like a stocking
Ab
Then went and stuffed it with coal
A Am E Db
Now I want a cold, cold Christmas
F# B E
To gnaw at the depths of your soul

[CHORUS]

Db Am
I ll be alone this Christmas
F# B E
You d think it would cut like a knife
Db A
But I m numb inside cause a part of me s died
F# B

From the frostbite you spread on my life

[SPOKEN PART - SAME AS VERSE]

[SPOKEN]

Darlin , Christmas with you, I used to love it so
We d trade presents and kiss beneath the mistletoe
I said I loved you, and you said you loved me too
Remember? I said I loved you, and you said you loved me too?
Those days are over now but I still want you to know
Even though I m not the one you ll be kissin beneath that mistletoe
I ll be thinking of you every minute on this day of love and cheer
And every minute of every other day of the year
I m serious.

[CHORUS]

Db Am
So cold that it pierces your body
F# B E
So cold that it hurts every breath
Db A
In fact I wouldn t mind if you woke up to find
F# B
Your new man had frozen to death

[VERSE 3]

E A
So go have a cold, cold Christmas
A blustery landscape of pain
Though I m warm in my skin, I m still snowed in
F# B
By the blizzard that fell in my brain
E A
Only a week until New Year
Ab
That s when I ll make a new start
A Am E Db
But first comes a cold, cold Christmas
F# B E
To go with your cold, cold heart
F# B E
Your frozen, nasty heart
