

Scar

Stephen Fretwell

SCAR

A great song â€" quite quick for Mr. Fretwell! Not sure if Iâ€™ve got some of the lyrics rightâ€|

C Am Fmaj7 G

I donâ€™t know, what I should say
I keep my mouth shut through the day
All in the night I know why the night, brings you such a fright

See that rope, over there
Well itâ€™s been here, here for years
No one knows why, what will I, tell it much to do

F Fm C C7

And that old scar, on my face,
Slowly fading away
And itâ€™s high time I apologised, to everyone that Iâ€™ve hurt
Maybe I could, be your man
Do you think can help me darling, see if you can
It just feels right, you and I,
Livin on this bar tonight

C Am Fmaj7 G

I donâ€™t know, what game to play,
I played a different, one yesterday,
Games never move, life seems to do,
What I donâ€™t wanna do

F Fm C C7

Maybe I could, be your man
Do you think can help me darling, see if you can
It just feels right, donâ€™t you think
Somehow, tonight
And that old scar, on my face,
Slowly fading away
And itâ€™s so long since I apologised, to anyone that Iâ€™ve hurt

C Am Fmaj7 G

I still donâ€™t know, what I should say
Does it get annoying, with me wastinâ€™ the day
Fallen in drunk, drunken I fell, fell for your spell.
