

The Night I Laid You Down
Stephen Lynch

Song: The Night I Laid You Down
Artist: Stephen Lynch
Tabbed by: Henrik Engebretsen
@: henrikengebretsen@gmail.com

Intro:

G C G D C G x2

G C G
We were young, maybe twenty
D C G
You wore a white dressing gown
G C G
Drinking wine and dancing slowly
D C G
On the night I laid you down

Em G
And the moonlight revealed your body
Em D
As the radio played some old Phil Collins song

G C G
And we believed in something holy
D C G
On the night I laid you down

G C G
We had love in our eyes
D C G
We had passion in our souls
G C G
There was fire in our kisses
D C G
But it was not a Phil Collins song

Em G
It might have been like Mike and the Mechanics (I don t know who that is)
Em D
Yes, you do, it was the other guy in Genesis

I m pretty sure that it was Phil Collins (No, it wasn t)

On the night I laid you down

Anyway (Anyway), it doesn t matter (Doesn t matter)

We made love (We made love) until the dawn

Two hearts beating (Two hearts beating) was all we heard (Oh boy, here we go)

Besides that old (It was fucking no) Phil Collins song

Well, it might have been that song from the movie with the jam box (Say Anything) (That s the one)

Who the hell mixes up Peter Gabriel with Phil Collins?

Well fuck you I guess I m no expert (No you re not) on fucking 90 s music (80 s) (Whatever)

On the night I laid you down

On the night I laid you down