Leaving Song
Stephen Speaks

*The intro always sounds better when you put your own style into it. He always changes it up, so do whatever you think would sound good.

(Verse 1)
G   D   C
And everytime I think of you
        Em   D C
I ll remember all the goodtimes that we ve had
G   D   C
And everytime I sing this tune
        Em   D   C
I will laugh, I will cry, I will close my eyes
          Em   D   C
Cause I know that it won t be long

(Chorus)
         G   D
Until we sing, we will write
        Em   D   C
We will laugh away the night
        Em D   C
And the good times will never end
                G D C G
When we meet again

(Verse 2)
G   D   C
And I m gonna be somewhat lonely
          Em   D   C
cause you know no one could ever fill your shoes
   G   D   Em   D   C
And as iron sharpens iron you have taught me how to be a stronger man
       Em D   C
And I look forward to the day I learn again

(Chorus)
         G   D
We will sing, we will write

        Em       D        C
We will laugh away the night
        Em        D        C
And I know that it won t be long

Until we meet again

Am                 Em        D        Am
Though I wish that I were with you now
                     Em           D
I know there s a reason for a space
Am              Em            D   Am
I can dream of memories you re writing down
                 Em    D
And I look forward to that day
         Em     C        G
And the smile on your face

         G            D
We will sing, we will write
        Em       D        C
We might cry and we might fight
        Em              D     C (strum over)
And the good times will never end
         G          D          Em         D           C
We will laugh, we ll relax, we ll reflect on the years we ve past
        Em         D          C (strum over)
And I know that it won t be long, until we meet again

(similar to intro)
G        D              C        G or C ending (optional)
And everytime I think of you
