(fica assim a música inteira)

I heard you re doing well
Selling art and everything
I like your stuff, good for you
I ll buy a piece or maybe two

Do you ever think of me?
Do you remember all our stupid dreams?
Rainbows and pots of gold
So much to prove before we got old

I took you places round the world
I miss your face sometimes, you know?
You took my picture a thousand times
I ll buy them back, I don t mind

I lost my way but found my track
I m sorry if I never listened back
I ve been round, I ve been up and down
And you miss the one we dressed like clowns

Oh, and how s your car? How s your life?
Oh, how s my friend? When s she gonna be your wife?
I m sittin up, writin down
Oh, these things I sometimes dream about

I knew your number off by heart
That s the only one I liked to talk

It wasn't me using you
I trusted you, one of the few

And we had some laughs, had some rows
But in the end the walls came down
You'd like the place I'm living now
It's a shame you can't come around

And I've grown a lot since we last spoke
Got myself together, fixed what was broke
I wonder if we'll talk again
Oh, drink together, just like then

I suppose it's different now, it's new Whoever points the finger at who
I really hope you're happy, both of you
And maybe sometimes you miss me too...
