 And rolls along the houses, farms and fields.

Em
Passing towns that have no name,

And graveyards of the rusted automobiles.

I m the train they call the City of New Orleans,

F                      C                                  D                      G

I ll be gone five hundred miles when the day is done.

[Verse 2]

Dealing card games with the old men in the club cars,
A penny a point, ain't no one keeping score.
Pass the paper bag that holds the bottle,
And feel the wheels rumbling neath the floor.

And the sons of Pullman porters,
And the sons of engineers,
Ride their fathers magic carpet made of steam.

Mothers with their babes asleep,
Rocking to the gentle beat,
And the rhythm of the rails is all they dream.

[Chorus]

C                      D                      G
Good morning America, how are you?
Em                      C                      G
Say don t you know me, I m your native son.
D                      G                      D                      Em
I m the train they call the City of New Orleans,
F                      C                      D                      G
I ll be gone five hundred miles when the day is done.

[Verse 3]

Nighttime on the City of New Orleans,
Changing cars in Memphis, Tennessee.
Halfway home, and we ll be there by morning,
Through the Misissippi darkness, rolling down to the sea.

But all the towns and people seem
To fade into a bad dream,
The steel rail still ain t heard the news.

The conductor sings his songs again,
The passengers will please refrain,
This train s got the disappearin railroad blues.

[Chorus]

C                      D                      G
Goodnight America, how are you?
Em                      C                      G
Say don t you know me, I m your native son.
D                      G                      D                      Em
I m the train they call the City of New Orleans,
F                      C                      D                      G
I ll be gone five hundred miles when the day is done.
