Em           G       Em           G
I Only had One Minute Left on my calling card
Em           G           D
I was half way around the world and it was raining really hard
Em           G           Em           G
I only had a couple of aspirin and a half a can of beer
Em           G           D
So I swallowed it down for courage but it was still pretty hard to hear
Em           G           Em           G
Cause I only had Three words That I wanted to tell you
Em           G           D
But it would be easier if you were here and I could smell you

```

Chorus:

```

C           D
Words are fallin out I know
G G/F#           Em
They drift they pass they melt like snow
C           D           G G/F#           Em
And I know I may be a flake, I scrape my knees and make mistakes
C           D           G G/F#           Em
And I may lose but mostly win, Sometimes I get soaked in sin
C           D           Em
But I fall right back into your arms again

```

Intro

Em           G           Em           G
So I ordered four Pints of Guinness and I set them on a trunk
Em           G           D
I had a long conversaaion with a hopeless drunk
Em           G           Em           G
And I only had five tickets and six new friends
Em           G           D
One of them Had a hissy fit and drove off in her Mercedes Benz

```

Em           G           Em           G
So we played seven card stud, and I had a royal flush
Em           G           D
And I took out your picture and I started to blush
Em           G           Em           G
Cause I only had eight lives, most cats got nine
Em           G           D
So I skipped out on bungee jumping, Just this time (just this time)
Em           G           Em           G
Because I only had ten chances, to say I love you

```
