

Ghost Story
Sting

C

I watch the Western sky

C

The sun is sinking

G

The geese are flying South

F

It sets me thinking

F

I did not miss you much

G

I did not suffer

F

What did not kill me

C

Just made me tougher

C

F

I feel the winter come

C

His icy sinews

G

Now in the fire light

F

G

The case continues

F

Another night in court

G

The same old trial

F

G

The same old questions asked

C

The same denial

C

F

The shadows close me round

C

Like jury members

G

I look for answers in

F

G

The fire s embers

F

Why was I missing then

G
That whole December

F G
I give my usual lie:

C
I don't remember

Am
Another winter comes

G
His icy fingers creep

F
Into these bones of mine

C
These memories never sleep

G F
And all these differences

G
A cloak I borrow

F
We kept our distances

F G C
Why should it follow I must have loved you

Am G
What is the force that binds the stars

F C G
I wore this mask to hide my scars

Am G
What is the power that pulls the tide

F C G
I never could find a place to hide

Am G
What moves the Earth around the sun

F C G F
What could I do but run and run and run

F
Afraid to love, afraid to fail

F G
A mast without a sail

D A D
The moon's a fingernail and slowly sinking

A G A
Another day begins and now I'm thinking

G A
That this indifference was my invention

G A7
When everything I did sought your attention

D A
You were my compass star

D

You were my measure

A

You were a pirate s map

G

A buried treasure

G

If this was all correct

A

The last thing I d expect

G

The prosecution rests

A7

D

It s time that I confess: I must have loved you
