[Verse]
Em Am G
The hopeless immortal s beginning to fade
Em Am G
Wrestled down with anchors, impervious chains
Em Am G
The ocean s electric reduced to a buzz
Em Am G
The pills turn the popper, he probably would
The First dark due Foffer, he Francisco weard
Em Am G

[Verse]
Em Am G
The standoff mechanic of cognisance, sighs
Em Am G
Mulls brooding through the alleyway, a harbinger s night
Am D G C
He pulled the remains, and teeth from the tree
Em Am G
When he sat down in memphis, he bound it on a hill
Em Am G

How to take it all in stride, win your soul and mind the light
GGFF Am GGFF Am GGFF Am
How to live around the storm, wind and pressures to befall
Am D G C
Here s a question you might need to ask
Em Am G
What s self destruction and how can we last?
