5 years old, with a smile on my face,

Mamma s in the kitchen, daddy s playin bass

Em G D

Downtown, well Downtown

D

Dad walks in says Cheri, my girl we need to talk, remember that night with John Boy, you know I saw it all

Em G D

And I was scared, for the first time

Em G D

Woah

Well then one thing led to another, left my mom down on the floor

My dad said once you had everything, you chose to be whore,

Em G D

So where gone, gone to the next town

Em G D

Oh my friends we were gone, just like that

Interlude: D, Em, G, D,

Oh, now its been 17 years since ive seen my mom

5 years for my dad and i hear he s trying to get a job

Em G D

Downtown, yet again

Well if weren t for my granddad i wouldn t be standing here today

Well all the years he s been pushing me saying boy go on and do your thing

Em G D

Downtown, make me proud son

Em G D

Oh and here I am, and here i stand, I m paying Downtown

Em G D

Woah
